

The Witch's Tree House Combination 190 transports children to the lofty heights of the treetops. Tree-trunk steps, climbing walls, netting and ladders make for exciting ways to climb up these rustic, mysterious tree houses in the forest. The adventurous connecting elements made from netting and rope pose a particular challenge. The tree house combination offers a safe place for nursery children to play, although in public parks it will also appeal to children aged 6-10.
